

Energizing Summit Class Outline

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS

Dhaniel Doud and Deb Rosenburg

1. Lights and Shadows:

- a) The highs and the lows.
- b) The different techniques.
- c) Why was each used?
- d) Determining the outcome you want.

2. The Start and Finish

- a) Light areas last.
- b) Plot your course.
- c) Different lengths of hair.
- d) Time for action.
- e) Weave or slice?

3. Hands on portion:

- a) Amount of contrast.
- b) Preparation of foils.
- c) Mixing the colors.
- d) The right side of the mannequin.
- e) The left side.

4. Questions and Answers.

Dhaniel has perfected his craft for the last 20 years. According to Dhaniel, you can never learn enough when it comes to haircoloring — as soon as you start to feel confident, you get that one client that makes you doubt yourself. Dhaniel's love of teaching has taken him all over the world, inspiring audiences to greater knowledge. His biggest joy is watching the expression on faces when students "get it." He's a very exciting educator.

Deb is a special kind of educator, as well. Her bubbly personalty and eagerness to teach others make her a joy to be around. To attend her class is a special treat, providing you an experience you will not soon forget. Her titbits of wisdom will be with you for years. Don't miss the opportunity to see Deb, you'll love her.